

UK house moves

Your move will be carefully and discreetly managed by our reliable team, with a service tailored to your exact requirements. We can advise on packing and will supply a range of materials to help you. Or you can choose to rely on our experienced packers to do as little or as much as you like. All your furniture and larger items will be skilfully handled by our team and packed with appropriate protection.

Depending on your available time and budget, you may choose for us to pack only ... your most delicate and breakable items. Or for peace-of-mind, allow us to manage your move entirely with our complete packing and moving service.

Our staff will make a detailed record of the contents of each packing case to ensure all boxes are placed in the correct rooms on arrival at your new premises.

Whatever service you would like, we will discuss your requirements in detail (usually with a home visit) and provide you with a free written Quotation. Once you have decided to go with GoodMove, a detailed schedule for your move will be agreed with you in advance to ensure a smooth and good move on the day.

House contents storage

If you are not moving to your new property straight away, then why not consider storing your house contents with GoodMove? We also have many customers who use our storage facilities whilst they rent out their own properties, perhaps because they are working or living overseas.

We offer short or long term storage of your furniture and personal belongings in state-of-the-art purpose designed containers. Each of our removal vehicles can hold up to five containers which, after packing by our expert packers at your house, are sealed and then transported direct to GoodMove's storage facilities, located at our secure headquarters.

For your peace of mind, our staff will make a detailed record of each container's contents, a copy of which you keep for your reference.

When you are ready, GoodMove will deliver your furniture and belongings in sealed containers to your new home, UK or overseas.

European moves

If you are moving abroad, then GoodMove can help you with a reliable door-to-door delivery service for your furniture and other house or garden effects. We have over 15 years of experience helping our customers with their moves throughout Europe.

Our team consists of a driver and qualified assistant, both experienced in European deliveries. Once your belongings have been carefully packed for export and documentation is complete, our team travel direct to your destination.

To ensure 24-hour security, all our teams sleep in their removal vehicles during any overnight stops.

If for any reason your property is not ready to move in, you may wish to use our secure storage facilities at GoodMove's headquarters.

When going into store, we always make an itinerary of the contents of each of your container(s) as they are packed, so that you can relax in the knowledge of – 'what went where'.

We also negotiate good ferry rates to keep our prices competitive and can take small deliveries as well as full house moves. Next day deliveries are even available for some areas of France.

Please call us for a full written quotation, which will be discussed at a free home visit.

Commercial office moves

If you are moving offices, then it's likely that you do not have the time to make all the arrangements yourself. It's also likely that you want to move out of your old office on a Friday evening and benefit from a smooth and quick set up in the new one – with business as usual on Monday.

GoodMove can help you here, with a reliable service that has earned us a favourable reputation with many local businesses.

We can do as little or as much as you wish to help you pack up your old office and set up in your new one. We can supply you with the appropriate packing materials, including a variety of office removal crates for you to pack everything up ready for our removals team. We can also dismantle your furniture and reassemble it if you wish, putting furniture into its new position, according to your brief.

No in-house IT support? No problem, with GoodMove's specially trained technicians, we can also help you with computer relocation requirements and other network diagnostics and support on the day of your move.

In addition, secure storage can be provided for any office furniture or equipment that isn't being moved immediately to your new premises. Or why not consider archiving the files that are consuming too much space, in GoodMove's archive storage facilities?

Please contact us for a free consultation about your office move, after which we provide you with a detailed written Quotation.

Archive storage

With a legal requirement to keep tax related files for seven years, many office shelves are spilling over with files that are gathering dust.

GoodMove offers an archive storage service, which means that your files are kept clean and secure in a temperature controlled, dust-free container.

We can supply archive storage boxes and, with notice, will collect your files for storage and deliver any back to you that you require. All the files in each container are listed and copies of each container's inventory are kept by you and us for easy and quick reference. You then have free access to your files during office hours.

We provide a free consultation, the result of which is a detailed written Quotation.
